THREE-WAY BATTLE AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT IS SEEN

PREDICTED YANKS WILL FINALLY NOSE OUT SENS AND WHITE SOX

By FRITZ HOWELL
NEW YORK, April 17.—(R)—A inree-way scrap for the 1944 Amsrican leagns pennant with the world champion New York Yankees finally nosing out Washington and Chicago, was predicted today by the country's baseball writers for the season starting tomorrow.

morrow.

Of 64 writers taking part in the annual "pick 'em" poll of the Associated Press, 30 designated the Yanks to take their fourth straight junior league championship. Chicago drew 17 first place hallots, and Washington 14, but the Senators nosed out the White Sox for second place in the overall voting under which the clubs received eight points for a first-place selection, seven for second, etc.

BELIEVED RESULTS BEGINNING TO SHOW IN ALLIED AIR WAR

By GLADWIN HILL.
LONDON, April 17.—(P)—Although the Germans may have increased their frontline air strength creased their frontline air strength in recent months by desperate "window dressing," it is believed in London that the allies' "invisible' damage to nazi plane production is yielding tangible dividends in slackened resistance.

Today there came from responsible air observers these salient focts and formers on the airway.

facts and figures on the airwar:
Since November, Allied attacks on plane production sources—aside from the toll in combat—may have cost the Germans as many as 5.000 planes which they have been prevented from manufacturing and putting in the air.
This is reflected in the fact that whereas, as recently as January, the Germans were throwing up as many as 600 fighters against the is estimated from fliers' accounts and other reports that now they are seldom putting up more than 350 planes at any one time.

More allied planes are being shot down now than six months ago, but this is believed by some to reflect the doubled scope of operations and some improvement in the Germans' defensive tactics. Proportional losses are remaining low.

For every plane in the front line an airforce has a reserve of four or five in replacement pools and factories, and best informed allied observers believe that the Germans in their "window-dressing" process, have sapped this reserve in order to maintain their front line strength.

The full extent of this drain—and the sapping of other war facilities—can be fully exposed only when the final break comes.

The state department revealed today that Mr. Hoover put forward his suggestion at a meeting with British Premier Ramsay MasDonald at Hapidan, Va., in October, 1929.

MacDonald's uneasiness at this proposal and his refusal to agree that neither country should build naval, military or air bases in the other's hemitphere were setforth in the last two of three volumes of diplomatic decuments for 1920 published by the state department.

The first state department book came out last December. The department regularly isssues its secret telegrams and memoranda after 15 years.

The two volumes disclose that antiwar talks were one of the prime diplomatic activities in 1929, but they show that in that same year. Japan was hedging away from such commitments and keeping a toe in the door that opened to Pearl Harbor.

When the Kellog pact was up for Japanese ratification, it was argued that a phrase committing nations to renounce war "in the name of their respective peoples" was against the Japanese constitution, which gives supreme power to the emperor.

The treaty was finally accepted with the declaration that the provision "is understood to be imapplicable as far as Japan is concerned."

LIQUOR DECLARED NOT APPROPRIATE REWARD FOR BONG

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, April 17.—(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur doesn't consider "liquor or spirituous wines an appropriate recognition" for Maj. Richard I, Bong's record-breaking feat of shooting down 27 enemy plaues, so the Poplar Wis., ace will not get the case of Scotch whiskey promised by Capt. Eddle Rickenbacker to the first American pilot to exceed his World War I record of 28 planes shot down. Instead, MacArthur indicated Bong's promotion from Captain to Major on the day his record was confirmed was a more proper recog-

(Bong is not a drinking man but at an advanced allied air base he told Associated Press war correspondent Olen Clements he had thanked Rickerbacker for the promised Scotch and hoped it could be rushed "out here for the boys." But that was before MacArthur's

REVERSALS RULINGS BY SUPREME COURT SOUGHT BE STOPPED

WASHINGTON, April 17.—(P)—Seven different bills designed to alter supreme court procedure in handling cases—chiefly with the intent of speeding consideration—are pending before the senate and house judiciary committees.

One of the measures, offered by Rep. Welchel (D-Ga) and backed by several bar associations, would require the agreement of seven of the nine justices before a prior ruling could be reversed.

"This recent trend toward switching decisions is shaking the very foundations of jurisprddence," Welchel declared. "Something much be done to stop it."

He added he "certainly agreed"

Teace Proposals

London Daily Mail said today in an Istanbul dispatch that Germany made peace overtures last December to the United States and British through a neutral diplomat. The newspaper said the information was obtained by its correspondent, Niel Monks, direct from the diplomat, who was quoted as saying that Baron Manfred Von Killinger, German minister to Romania, presented an eight-point program to him with the request that it be forwarded to Washing ton and London but not to Mostow.

The diplomat said Killinger represented himself as acting on instructions of Hitler. Monks very foundations of jurisprddence," Welchel declared. "Something much be done to stop it."

He added he "certainly agreed" with Justice Roberts, who commented when the court overruled itself recently on the rights of negroes to participate in democratic primaries, that such reversals put court declaions "in the same class with a restricted railway ticket—good for this day and train only."

The bill most discussed publicly is one introduced by Senator O'-Mahoney (D-Wyo) and Chairman Sumners (D-Texas) of the house judiciary committee. Supported by Attorney General Francis Biddle and many other legal officials, it would allow five judges to constitute a quorum, instead of six, as at present.

The diplomat said Killinger represented himself as acting on instructions of Hitler. Monks quoties the diplomat as saying he had heard nothing further of the proposals beyond the fact that they had reached his government. Neither the diplomat nor his government was identified.

The British foreign office declined to confirm or deny that such proposals had reached London. The points were said to include elimination of the German and German evacuation of all are force, maintenance of a defensive allience with British and German evacuation of all and German evacuation of all and German evacuation of all participations.
